CONSULTATION ON THE RELIGIOUS EDUCATION CORE SYLLABUS

Education Minister Paul Givan has launched a public consultation on a revised RE Syllabus in response to the Supreme Court Judgment on Religious Education and Collective Worship in schools.

The consultation is now open and will run until 30 September 2026.

Public consultation

Judgment

LAUNCHED

Consultation on the Religious Education Core Syllabus - NI Direct - Citizen Space

If you have a loved one in hospital and they would like a member of the pastoral team or the minister to visit them there, please speak to Rea Blain, Ken McFaul, or Isobel in the church office.

We trust that all our leaders and helpers of organisations enjoy a lovely, and well-deserved summer break. We are so thankful for the commitment and love that you show to those who are under your care.

We want to remind any leaders who will be returning in September to ensure that their AccessNI and Safeguarding training is up-to-date so that there is no difficulty in starting back as planned. There is online Safeguarding training available during June and also a couple of in-person training sessions towards the end of June (Lurgan and Newtownards). More information and details to register can be found under Safeguarding on the MCI website or by speaking to Isobel in the office.

The next bulletin will be issued on Sunday 2nd August (monthly). If you have anything you would like added, please send it to contact@glengormleymethodist.org by Wednesday 29th July.

The next 'Men Only' Breakfast is Saturday 2 August at 8am in Eden Café.

10 New Laptops for Charlene Secondary

CHARLENE'S PROJECT would like to thank the MWI for their very generous donation of £415. This will go to support the ongoing work and support of the children in Uganda.

Thank you to all those who so generously support the Shankill Food Bank.

The food bank is currently low on items such as cereal, canned and long-life food and toiletries such as toothpaste, shampoo, shower gel soap and toilet rolls. Thank you.

Tuesdays (July)

7pm - Coffee Doc

Newtownabbey Hearing Aid (User Support Service)
will meet here on THURSDAY 6th AUGUST

Flowers

The flowers in the Church during the month of July are being provided by

June Cahill
Paul McKinley
Pat Rainey

We are currently in need of the following items. If you are able to help, we would be very grateful.

Prams suitable from newborn, buggies and a double buggy.

Nappies – size 1, 4, 5, 6 and toiletries.

Many thanks for your ongoing support.
